

Jesus > Sin

Hebrews 2:3-9

<sup>3</sup> How will we escape if we neglect such a great salvation? This salvation had its beginning when it was spoken of by the Lord, and it was confirmed to us by those who heard him. <sup>4</sup> At the same time, God also testified by signs and wonders, various miracles, and distributions of gifts from the Holy Spirit according to his will. <sup>5</sup> For he has not subjected to angels the world to come that we are talking about.

Hebrews 2:3-9

<sup>6</sup> But someone somewhere has testified: What is man that you remember him, or the son of man that you care for him? <sup>7</sup> You made him lower than the angels for a short time; you crowned him with glory and honor <sup>8</sup> and subjected everything under his feet. For in subjecting everything to him, he left nothing that is not subject to him. As it is, we do not yet see everything subjected to him.

Hebrews 2:3-9

<sup>9</sup> But we do see Jesus—made lower than the angels for a short time so that by God's grace he might taste death for everyone—crowned with glory and honor because he suffered death.

An Apollo said,
 "O on the moon, you are the brother. Whom none
 in me, and I in him,
 will be much part;
 for you can do nothing
 without me."

(When I consider the heavens, the work of the fingers, the moon and the stars, which thou hast
 ordered, what is man
 that thou art mindful
 of him? and the Son?
 What that thou visited
 him?)
