Habakkuk 1:1-6

¹ The pronouncement that the prophet Habakkuk saw.

² How long, LORD, must I call for help and you do not listen or cry out to you about violence and you do not save? ³ Why do you force me to look at injustice? Why do you tolerate wrongdoing? Oppression and violence are right in front of me. Strife is ongoing, and conflict escalates. ⁴ This is why the law is ineffective and justice never emerges. For the wicked restrict the righteous; therefore, justice comes out perverted.

⁵Look at the nations and observe—be utterly astounded! For I am doing something in your days that you will not believe when you hear about it. ⁶Look! I am raising up the Chaldeans, that bitter, impetuous nation that marches across the earth's open spaces to seize territories not its ow

God, What Are You Trying to Show Me?

Habakkuk 1:3-5

³ Why do you force me to look at injustice? Why do you tolerate wrongdoing? Oppression and violence are right in front of me. Strife is ongoing, and conflict escalates. ⁴ This is why the law is ineffective and justice never emerges. For the wicked restrict the righteous; therefore, justice comes out perverted.

⁵ Look at the nations and observe—be utterly astounded! For I am doing something in your days that you will not believe when you hear about it.

When Your Question Is Not Answered, Trust God

Habakkuk 3:2

LORD, I have heard the report about you; LORD, I stand in awe of your deeds.

Revive your work in these years; make it known in these years. In your wrath remember mercy!

Isaiah 55:8-9

8"For my thoughts are not your thoughts, and your ways are not my ways."
This is the LORD's declaration. 9"For as heaven is higher than earth, so my ways are higher than your ways, and my thoughts than your thoughts.
