The Transition Between Elijah and Elisha

2 Kings 2:7-11
 7 Fifty men from the sons of the prophets came and stood observing them at a distance while the two of them stood by the Jordan. 8 Elijah took his mantle, rolled it up, and struck the water, which parted to the right and left. Then the two of them crossed over on dry ground. 9 When they had crossed over, Elijah said to Elisha, "Tell me what I can do for you before I am taken from you." So Elisha answered, "Please, let me inherit two shares of your spirit." 10 Elijah replied, "You have asked for something difficult. If you see me being taken from you, you will have it. If not, you won't." 11 As they continued walking and talking, a chariot of fire with horses of fire suddenly appeared and separated the two of them. Then Elijah went up into heaven in the whirlwind.

The Parting of the Jordan

2 Kings 2:14
 He took the mantle Elijah had dropped, and he struck the water. "Where is the LORD God of Elijah?" he asked. He struck the water himself, and it parted to the right and the left, and Elisha crossed over.

Salt Healed the Spring

2 Kings 2:19-22
 19 The men of the city said to Elisha, "My lord can see that even though the city's location is good, the water is bad and the land unfruitful." 20 He replied, "Bring me a new bowl and put salt in it." After they had brought him one, 21 Elisha went out to the spring, threw salt in it, and said, "This is what the LORD says: 'I have healed this water. No longer will death or unfruitfulness result from it.'" 22 Therefore, the water still remains healthy today according to the word that Elisha spoke.

Bears of Judgement for Bad Guys

2 Kings 2:23-25
 23 From there Elisha went up to Bethel. As he was walking up the path, some small boys came out of the city and jeered at him, chanting, "Go up, baldy! Go up, baldy!" 24 He turned around, looked at them, and cursed them in the name of the LORD. Then two female bears came out of the woods and mauled forty-two of the children. 25 From there Elisha went to Mount Carmel, and then he returned to Samaria.

The Pouring of the Oil

2 Kings 4:1-7

¹One of the wives of the sons of the prophets cried out to Elisha, "Your servant, my husband, has died. You know that your servant feared the LORD. Now the creditor is coming to take my two children as his slaves." ²Elisha asked her, "What can I do for you? Tell me, what do you have in the house?" She said, "Your servant has nothing in the house except a jar of oil." ³Then he said, "Go out and borrow empty containers from all your neighbors. Do not get just a few. ⁴Then go in and shut the door behind you and your sons, and pour oil into all these containers. Set the full ones to one side."

The Pouring of the Oil

2 Kings 4:1-7

⁵So she left. After she had shut the door behind her and her sons, they kept bringing her containers, and she kept pouring. ⁶When they were full, she said to her son, "Bring me another container." But he replied, "There aren't any more." Then the oil stopped. ⁷She went and told the man of God, and he said, "Go sell the oil and pay your debt; you and your sons can live on the rest."
